Westinghouse Charitable Giving Program

Westinghouse Electric Company is confident in its long-standing pledge: “You can be sure ... if it’s Westinghouse.” This refers not only to our products and services, but also to our commitment to the communities in which our employees live and work.

The Westinghouse Charitable Giving Program is the primary funding entity for the company’s social investments. Areas of emphasis for this program are education, the environment and the community. Within each area, Westinghouse encourages programs that help meet the needs of populations such as the disadvantaged, the young, the elderly and people with disabilities.

STEM Education

Electricity is essential to our existence. Westinghouse believes that the world needs a mixture of energy sources, including nuclear, to sustain future generations with electricity. Therefore, the need to fill STEM careers in the future is critical. These grants will support science, technology, engineering and mathematic educational programs and activities K-12.

Environmental Sustainability

Clean air, land and water are important to sustain now for future generations. Grants toward environmental sustainability are intended to support keeping our Earth, air and water clean. Conservation and recycling are also important pieces to sustaining life on Earth.

Community Vitality

Sustainability and quality of life make a community thrive. Communities in which Westinghouse employees live and work are supported by this grant to encourage and enhance economic development, public safety, the arts, civic initiatives and initiatives that improve the overall condition of life.

Our Mission

The main mission of the Westinghouse Charitable Giving Program is to support the following three areas:

- Science, Technology, Engineering and Math (STEM) Education
- Environmental Sustainability
- Community Vitality

We make contributions up to $5,000 to non-profit organizations with proof of exemption under the Section 501(c)(3) Internal Revenue Service (IRS) code, in the areas where our employees live and work. (To find where Westinghouse sites are located go to: www.westinghousenuclear.com)

Grant proposals are accepted year-round. Award amounts will be $5,000 and under. The Westinghouse Charitable Giving Board will notify applicants of its final decision in writing.

An organization may be awarded one grant per Westinghouse fiscal year (March 31 – April 1), and can apply for another grant in the next fiscal year.
